The Sister Cities Market – 22 international partners

On this tour you will experience traditional products and culinary delights.

1 Our tour starts next to the Beautiful Fountain at Booth 128 from Lebkuchen-Schmidt. Here you'll find original Nuremberg gingerbread. Whether round or square, with chocolate, sugar or plain with almonds – a delicious gingerbread is a must at Christmas and, of course, in Nuremberg.

2 We move on to the Mulled Wine Stand Nr. 126 from Vollrath. There, a blueberry mulled wine will warm you wonderfully from the inside. This specialty is created exclusively from specially selected Italian wines and flavored with choice spices.

3 At Booth 103, nostalgic feelings of the holiday season are guaranteed: Gabriele Ulrich sells traditional Franconian Christmas decorations. If you want to decorate your Christmas tree with one-of-a-kind straw stars or angels made of feathers or are looking for something even more unusual, you are sure to find it here.

4 The history of gingerbread – with its unique aroma based on exotic spices – is tightly tied to the history of Nuremberg, because this Free Imperial City was once located on the hub of many European trade routes. At Stand 104 the Nuremberg Lebküchner Wolfgang Woitinek offers handmade gingerbread.

5 At the crèche, Susanne Schrödel stands in Booth 86 behind her prune men. Children and grandmas, cooks and waiters, pastors and devils – everyone loves to stop and look at these little figures with their walnut heads. They are all handmade and nine to 22 centimeters big – or small. Made of wire, dried prunes and figs, they are an excellent souvenir!

6 You'll find something else to hang on your Christmas tree with a visit to Thomas Schulz in Booth 72. He makes Springerle, sometimes called Eierzucker (Egg Sugar) or Reiterle (Little Riders). This baked good has existed for many centuries and is made in the traditional way with special modeling forms. You can also buy these forms from Thomas Schulz – a great handmade gift with Nuremberg flair and a long history.

7 Peter Löbel at Booth 1 sells the world-famous Nuremberg bratwurst. He creates this traditional symbol of the city in his own butcher shop, using a formula decreed by the City Council of Nuremberg more than 700 years ago... but the exact recipe remains a secret.

8 The tour leads us to Stand 26 from Ralf Rehder. He sells the most important symbol of the Christkindles-market, the "Rauschgold" angel. The name comes from the extremely thin beaten brass which once made the robe of the angel shine and created a whispering noise – "rauschen" in German – with every movement. Today, the angels no longer wear metal, but paper – yet they are still as magical as in the past.

9 To finish off your tour, why not stop by Thomas & Gerstacker in Booth 31. Those in the know order a Christkindlesmarkt mulled wine here, popular because of its special secret mix of spices and its fruity sweetness. A tip: The cup doesn't have to be turned back in for the deposit – you can take it home as a souvenir! All mulled wine sellers have the same.

CREATIVE ARTS & CRAFTS at the Christkindlesmarkt

The Sister Cities Market – 22 international partners

One-of-a-kind gift ideas from creative minds – this tour makes the hearts of those looking for something unique beat faster.

1 We begin the tour with Booth 111 from Rudi Delago. Fans of wood carving are happy here because this South Tyrolean artist learned his craft from an early age. They'll find crèche figures and wooden decorative items – all from his own production in Gröden.

2 Not far away is Booth 109 from Stefan Lüpkes where he amazes visitors: Through his delicate and precise craftsmanship, he turns a simple piece of wood, fungus or root into a magical castle. In the twinkling of an eye, a rough piece of timber becomes a fairy-tale palace or an entire kingdom. When you take out the individual pieces, the work of art turns into a miraculous 3D-puzzle.

3 Diagonally opposite is Peter Eberhardt in Booth 100. Here you'll find a diverse assortment of glass objects: From glass globes to animal figures and angels and on to the stars. All the objects, artistic or practical, are completely handmade.

4 The next stop leads us to Hans Steffin-Hierzer at Booth 90. In his atelier, he creates detailed pen-and-ink drawings, which he reproduces in limited-edition art prints, calendars and wonderful greeting cards decorated with stars and other embossing.

5 Typically Franconian and really creative are the prune men from Julian Scheller. At his Stand 87, located at the crèche, gathers a funny little community. Made from dried prunes, chimney sweeps, gnomes, chefs and firefighters stand row-on-row and fascinate visitors. Julian Scheller is the fifth generation of his family creating these little figures.

6 Nuremberg is known for its old half-timbered houses, including those in the nearby Weissgerbergasse. If you'd like to take one of these beautiful buildings home – in a miniature format of course – you'll find one at Edith Herrmann's Booth 48. She creates Franconian half-timbered houses based on historical originals.

7 Booth 18 will fascinate Mamas and Papas, Grandmas and Grandpas. Here, one finds playful children's fashions "Made in Nuremberg". The clever idea behind it: The colorful pants and dresses are fitted with soft cuffs, waist- and wristbands, so the clothing can "grow" with your baby or toddler and be used for many years. In 2016, Kerstin Brkasic-Bauer won the Entrepreneur of the Year Prize from the IHK Chamber of Commerce for this fantastic idea.

8 A stroll past stands with Christmas decorations, sweets and fruit bread brings the tour to Marco Weihmann at Booth 12. His floral arrangements exude a wonderful scent of Christmas, because he uses not only the classic array of pines and evergreens to create them, but also fruits and spices like cinnamon and oranges.

LOCAL AND REGIONAL PRODUCTS at the Christkindlesmarkt

Foto © Kristof Götting

On this tour, you'll experience regional craftwork and enjoy Franconian specialties.

1 The tour starts at Booth 3 of Walhalla Lamb from Regensburg. Here you can find all sorts of good things made from sheep: Yarns, wool socks, cuddly toys and soap made from sheep's milk. The soap is enhanced with colors, scents, herbs or oil and is calming for sensitive skin.

2 At the second stop you'll also find great wool products. At Daniela Enßner's Booth 21, there are caps, gloves, felt soles and much more. All products are made with the wool from her alpacas in the Aurach Valley and keep you cozy warm during a cold winter.

3 One lane on, PLAYMOBIL in Stand 44 makes children's eyes light up with joy. This Franconian export king – founded in 1974 in nearby Zirndorf – has conquered the world of toys with its little figures. Children in Germany and around the world use these playthings to dive into the world of knights, police, builders and astronauts.

4 Things turn even sweeter a few meters further in the "Zum Eierzucker" lane: Juliane Neuffer-Tietz presents everything about bees and their products in Booth 63. In addition to homemade honey from the mountains in northern Bavaria, she offers bee-cream, honey soap, lip balms, incense cones and met.

5 A visit to Stand 92 is a must for all teddy bear fans. Local Fürth-based Elisabeth Wimmer discovered her love of little bears just by chance. Since then, teddy bears have been arriving from the "Clover-Leaf City": In limited editions, some sewn, others knitted; all handmade. And if your darling should lose an eye or need repair, Elisabeth Wimmer has opened a teddy bear hospital too.

6 Handmade unique items from the region can be found in Stall 108 - whether jewellery, decoration or fashion - there is something for everyone here. The Frisches Design stall offers handicrafts by artists and designers from the region on a two-day rotation.

7 Manufaktur Dr. Röska comes from the Upper Palatinate. The company offers its pure vegetable face and body care products in Booth 142, next to the Beautiful Fountain. Its all-natural soap, body balms and bath and shower products are made without synthetic additives and enriched with honey, bee's wax and milk. The company's own scents are created from unadulterated essential oils.

8 Just a few steps away, at the corner of the City Hall, one finds Tomas Braunwarth from Fürth at Booth 144. He presents extraordinary candle creations and spiced candles, which emit a wonderful aroma when lit.

9 To round off the tour, head to the niches of St. Sebald's Church, right across from the historical Old City Hall. There, you'll find the booths of Original Regional with specialties from Franconia and the Upper Palatinate. Herbal teas, mulled wine, fine brandies and jams made from fruit from local orchards, unique sausages made from lamb and beef, wool products, soap and bee's wax products and much more – are all on offer from local regional growers and producers.

FOR A GOOD CAUSE at the Christkindlesmarkt

Foto © Timo Reischert

Typical regional specialties

On this tour, visit the booths at the Christkindlesmarkt who give the proceeds of their sales to charity.

1 Right at the beginning of the tour, at Booth 39, are very special presents which have one thing in common: They are all made with lots of love and dedication by unique people. The products come from workshops for the disabled in cooperation with Noris-Inclusion. None of them are mechanically mass produced, each one has its own personality. The crafts also have ecological value – and with your purchase, you help preserve these important jobs.

2 Straw, wood, paper or cardboard: If you're looking for a one-of-a-kind decoration for your tree or window, don't miss the "Sternstunden" stand (Booth 82, near the nativity scene). For the last 25 years to help children in need, hobby crafters large and small from the entire region have created Christmas stars in every possible variety to support this non-profit association. When you stop by, there's also a good chance you'll meet someone famous from sports or entertainment. They help sell the stars for the benefit of the project – and are also willing to sign an autograph.

3 Continue on to Booth 89, in which the Nuremberg hospital presents visitors delicious Christmas delicacies. From home-made Christmas cookies to Stollen to cherry cobbler in a jar, there are lots of good things to eat. The treats are also available in a Christmas gift package.

4 Football fans of all ages will enjoy the stand of the 1. FC Nuremberg (Booth 139). The Club family has created FCN items for a good cause. The proceeds from the sales go to the social initiative of the 1. FCN "Nuremberg Wins", which supports children and young adults in the region through sport, health activities, education and integration.

5 If you're looking for cool hand-made totes upcycled from truck tarpaulins or colorful hand-made jewelry, you'll find something at Booth M (in front of the city hall) from "mudra – Alternative Youth- und Drug Help Nuremberg". As the first project of its kind in Bavaria, the organization has assisted in the work and social integration of former drug users for more than 30 years. The proceeds from the sales of the unique made-in-Nuremberg label are used exclusively for the qualification, employment and reintegration of program participants and help create a drug-free future for former addicts.

6 The Sister Cities Market behind the City Hall is an insider tip. Some of the booths – including those from Brasov (Romania), Córdoba (Spain), Kavala (Greece), and Bar (Montenegro) – are operated by non-profit associations. Proceeds from the sales are donated to charitable projects in the sister cities. The Nablus Initiative supports children and young adults in the Palestinian territories. And a purchase at the stand of San Carlos (Nicaragua) will not only bring a little more money into one of the poorest places on earth but will also help to care for victims of sexual and intra-family violence.

Tip: Children's Christmas Market
You can also do a good deed at the Children's Christmas Market. Here awaits a special wishes tree. Hanging here are lists containing the heart-felt wishes of children and young people who are living in Nuremberg children's homes, hospitals and women's shelters. Anyone can take a wish list and make it come true. The gifts can be delivered to the ticket booth at the Children's Christmas Market, where they will be sent on to bring some Christmas joy to children in difficult situations.

LICENSED PRODUCTS at the Christkindlesmarkt

Tip: The official Christkindlesmarkt mulled wine cup is a sought-after collectors' item which appears in a new design each year. It is available at all stands at the market selling warm beverages.

On this tour, you'll find all the merchants who offer licensed products from the Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt. The products are a perfect memento of your visit to the market.

1 Our first booth on the tour is Stand 135. There, Tina Wendrich offers a pendant with a close-up of the logo of the Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt. The silver charm hung on a red cord is lovingly created by hand from sterling silver. It is a high-quality souvenir, which can be worn year-round.

2 If you like to eat sweets or want something small to take home for children from the Christkindlesmarkt, you'll find delicious treats as licensed products at the stand of Mahmut Kayhan in Booth 130. Part of his product line are official Christkindlesmarkt bonbons and lollipops. Just right for Christmas time, they taste of gingerbread spice and are handmade and personalized with a wooden charm.

3 The next licensed product can be found beside it at Booth 131. The Soap Manufactory of Susanne Schleicher from Fürth has created a special soap with a gingerbread scent and Christkindlesmarkt logo just for the market. There are also soap dishes with the official logo.

4 Mark your packages, letters and gifts with a very special stamp: Charlotte Grunow (Booth 122) offers a stamp kit with the silhouette of the Christkind. Those who wish to be creative can work with a stamp pad or sealing wax or choose a seal as a sticker.

5 In "Sternlasweg" is Booth 101 from Arndt Tennie. His delicate paper stars are a perfect small Christmas decoration for your tree or home. They are also an official licensed product of the Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt. They are available in many different shapes and colors; each star is one-of-a-kind.

6 Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt punch from Wurzelsepp can be found at Booth 96 from Philipp Rank. It is a tea composition which tastes wonderful all year long and contains cinnamon and a fantastic mix of fruits. The tea is available in 100- or 250-gram packages in an aroma-sealing bag.

7 A stroll past several stands leads us to Booth 71. To keep you warm in wintertime, Andrea Ruppert-Fröhling offers a Christkindlesmarkt scarf. Wonderfully warm and soft, it is made from Merino wool and is a great Christmas gift for all Christkindlesmarkt fans.

8 Wolfgang and Philipp Marx also have very special licensed products. In addition to gingerbread balls and chocolate products from their own workshop, there are chocolate gold coins with the logo of the Christkindlesmarkt at Booth 51. If you feel hungry for something sweet while exploring the market, you're sure to find something special in the assortment from Marx Chocolates.

9 One of the highlights of Advent are homemade baked goods. Everyone can make stars and hearts, but the Christkindlesmarkt cutter from Petra Strauß at Booth 52 really stands out. The Christkind and its signature was created in cooperation with the Städter Company. As the cutter is made from stainless steel and dishwasher-safe, the joy and memories will last for many years.

10 One can take home the Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt with the Church of Our Lady, Beautiful Fountain and Christkind as a decoration. Sieglinde Janoschke in Booth 38 offers a Christkindlesmarkt tea light made from real wood veneer in light-colored beech, fine mahogany or dark cherry. With a small candle, you'll light up the miniature scene and the eyes of children and adults.

VEGAN OFFERINGS at the Christkindlesmarkt

Foto © CTZ Nürnberg

Typical regional specialties

The Sister Cities Market – 22 international partners

This self-guided tour takes you to the stalls, which have a variety of vegan delicacies and gifts for you.

1 Our self-guided tour starts at stall 47 of Jan-Louis Vespermann, who for the first time this year is offering vegan sandwiches and deep-fried vegetables.

2 Diagonally opposite, at the tea concept stand of Wurzelepp stall 36 tea lovers will find a variety of organic, vegan teas with high-quality ingredients and exceptional flavours.

3 At Marx Schokolade in Booth 51, there are not only Lebkugeln and truffles. The range also includes vegan fruit and nuts in dark chocolate.

4 Just a few steps further, the Stahlmann family in Booth 53 offers vegan hot sausages with onions on request.

5 Fancy something warm? Then head for Dominik Jukic at stand 79 who offers hot drinks without animal ingredients, such as delicious hot chocolate with oat milk.

6 If you're hungry now, you can treat yourself next door at stall 80 with corn on the cob, a vegan mushroom pan with onions or vegan mashed potatoes.

7 Or would you prefer Nuremberg roast sausages, for which you can smell in every corner of the Christkindlesmarkt? Karin and Norbert Maisel's stall 127 offers the Nuremberg specialty in a vegan version.

8 Like the bratwurst, Nuremberg Lebkuchen are just as much a part of a visit to the Christkindlesmarkt. The extensive range from Lebkuchen-Schmidt (stall 128) also includes vegan gingerbread, which you should definitely try.

9 The sweet manufacturer from Fürth offers a range of vegan sweets and lollipops from its own production. You can find these treats at booth 130 sold by Mahmut Kayhan.

10 Next door is stall 131 of the Schleicherei soap factory. They also sell vegan products - but not for eating in this case. Instead, soaps without animal ingredients from their own production are offered.

11 At the end of the tour there is once again a warm refreshment. Karin Hoffmann at stand 146 will be serving delicious vegan potato pancakes - known here in Franconia as "Baggers" - made from freshly grated potatoes.
