The Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt

The Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt

The Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt traditionally takes place in the heart of the Old Town on the Main Market Square. The enticing aroma of gingerbread, mulled wine and grilled sausages fills the air at the Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt.

First mentioned in 1628, its roots probably go back to the time of the Reformation, when the tradition of giving children presents at Christmas evolved. Since then, traditional wares such as handmade Christmas decorations, "Rauschgoldengel" (gold foil angels) and prune men as well as culinary delights have been offered in more than 160 wooden booths with red and white roofs. Take a stroll through the festively lighted lanes and discover the enchantment of this magical atmosphere.

The Nuremberg Christkind

The Christkind is the symbol of Christmas in Nuremberg. With its blond curly hair, wearing a golden crown and gold-and-white gown, it traditionally opens its market with a prologue on the Friday before the first Sunday in Advent. Appearances at the Christkindlesmarkt, the Children's Christmas Market and the „Sternenhaus“ are part of its regular schedule along with visits to charitable organizations. Nuremberg selects a new Christkind for this heavenly office every two years.

Festive Opening Ceremony

Dec 1, 2023, 5:30 pm

Meet the Nuremberg Christkind:

Dec 5 to Dec 22, 2023
every Tuesday, Wednesday,
Thursday and Friday at 2:30 pm
at the Children's Christmas
Market and at 3 pm at the Christkindlesmarkt.

The Christkind opens its Market

The prologue which the Nuremberg Christkind recites every year at the opening of the Christkindlesmarkt was written in 1948 by Friedrich Bröger. He was the principal dramaturg of the theater and son of the Nuremberg workers' poet Karl Bröger. The text has been adapted a number of times.

You men and women, who once yourselves were children,
You little ones, life's journey just beginning,
Each and all, who troubled tomorrow, are full of cheer today,
Pray listen to what Christkind has come to say!

Every year, four weeks before the time,
To decorate the Christmas tree, to celebrate the season,
Appears upon this square, your forebears knew it too,
What you here see, called Christkindlesmarkt by you,
This little town within the town, of wood and cloth made,
Whose short-lived splendor so fleeting seems to be,
And yet it is eternal. My market shall forever young remain.
As long as Nuremberg stands, and the memory of that market's fame.

For Nuremberg is both old and young at once,
The many features of its countenance beyond all count.
Here this noble square. But now adjoining it,
The tall buildings of today, the factories of the modern world
The new city of so much green. And yet, you men and women true
It will remain forever the Nuremberg that is you.

Now as the old year ends there comes the day,
When wishes can be made and presents given,
When the market shines forth far and wide,
With decorations, and crystal balls, and blessed Christmastide
This you may not forget, you men and women, heed my word,
He who has all needs nothing more,
There are the children of this world and poor,
Who know the best what giving's for.

You men and women, who once yourselves were children,
Be them again today, happy as children be,
And now the Christkind to its market calls,
And all who come are truly welcome.

Sustainability at the Christkindlesmarkt

The Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt is also active in the topic of sustainability. Regional supply is important and organic and homemade products are valued. A variety of measures are being implemented step by step to protect the environment and climate.

- ◆ To keep waste at a minimum, all beverage stalls at the market work with a universal reusable cup system with the same mugs at each booth. The Christkindlesmarkt was the first in Germany to implement this deposit system.
- ◆ The lights at the Christkindlesmarkt are as environmentally friendly as possible. All the holiday illumination comes from LED lights which are lit by 100% ecological power from the region, provided by N-ERGIE, the local utility.
- ◆ For the market booths themselves, protecting resources plays an important role. The stalls are all made of regional spruce and are repaired and reused year for year. You can even walk past stands that still date back in part to 1890.

Gold Foil Angels

It glitters and glistens, traditionally has no arms, is the quintessence of the Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt and can be found here in all sizes – the Nuremberg gold foil angel.

According to legend, a Nuremberg doll maker made it for his sick daughter. An origin in the 16th century is more likely:

At that time, the thinly beaten brass used to make them was called "Rauschgold", because of the whispering sound it made.

Tip: Find the stands selling prune men and "Rauschgoldengel" on the market map!

The World of the Prune Men

Zwetschgenmännle – the well loved figures made of prunes – have been sold at the Christkindlesmarkt for decades. More than 350 different figures are available. The figures are 9 to 22 centimeters high and are an illustrious company on the shelves of the stalls where they're sold.

Sister Cities Market

International Christmas market flair can be found at the Rathausplatz next to the Christkindlesmarkt: An area full of international booths with colorful themes and traditional goods - from more than 20 sister cities and municipalities associated with Nuremberg - invites visitors to a pre-Christmas "journey" round the world.

Heavenly – A Christmas Market just for Children!

At Hans-Sachs-Platz A, a beautifully lit nostalgic two-tiered carousel, a mini ferris wheel and a steam railway make their rounds. Lovingly decorated little houses with themes such as Christmas baking, candle making or holiday crafts invite children to a hands-on experience. While St. Nick is there to listen to their wishes in person, the Museum's Children's Post Office makes it easy to write a wish list for the Christkind. Each Sunday, there is special entertainment for kids. If you'd like to make Christmas wishes come true for an underprivileged child, there's a "Gift Givers' Tree" to help. The Toy Museum will feature the exhibit "Children Explain Christmas".

Latern Procession to the Castle

Year after year an atmospheric event, sponsored by the NÜRNBERGER Versicherung: Around 1.000 Nuremberg schoolchildren, accompanied by the Christkind, carrying "light artworks" make their way from the Market Square past the Christkindlesmarkt and up to the Imperial Castle. There the Christmas Story is told as a live nativity play.

This year the Latern Procession is taking place for the 73th time.

Specialties at the Christkindlesmarkt

Nuremberg, like no other city in Germany, stands for culinary delicacies. While gingerbread is at its peak during the Christmas season, the finger-sized grilled sausages are eaten all year long. Equally worth trying is a crackling pork shoulder (Schäuferle) with a dumpling (Kloß) or a Franconian carp (Karpfen). A glass of Franconian wine or a cool beer from a private Franconian owned brewery are an enjoyable pairing with the regional specialties.

But not only traditional Franconian cuisine finds its way to your plate in Nuremberg. Gourmet establishments and restaurants with star ratings treat their guests to innovative dishes and exceptional food combinations. Fresh regional products are the norm, mostly sourced from the local market gardens of Knoblauchsland. In restaurants and on the market, a wide range of vegetarian and vegan food is offered along with the best quality organic products. No wonder, because Nuremberg is an organic metropolis.

Tasty and Decorative

It looks back on a long tradition and – like mulled wine – is indelibly linked with Christmas: Nuremberg gingerbread. Thanks to the trading links of its cosmopolitan merchants, the city developed early on into a gingerbread capital, for the gingerbread makers were continually supplied with almonds, cinnamon and other spices. The forest around Nuremberg also helped furnish an essential component – natural honey. Today this specialty, which under EU law can be produced only within the city limits, is found in round as well as square shapes, coated with chocolate or a sugar icing or plain with almonds.

Be sure not to miss the Nuremberg anise-flavored cookie with an embossed design, also called a "Springerle" or "Reiterle". It is made of eggs, flour and fine sugar, and produced by pressing the dough into a mold. This delicious and decorative treat is usually hung on the Christmas tree and later eaten.

Welcome to LEBKUCHEN-SCHMIDT!

ADVERTISEMENT

Lebkuchen Schmidt: World-Famous Baking Tradition

Lebkuchen Schmidt is likely the most famous producer of this popular specialty and has been sending its custom packages of gingerbread around the world since 1927. At the Christkindlesmarkt, the "witch's house" from Schmidt is one of the favorite booths. Here, you can enjoy gingerbread fresh from the oven and buy other products from this traditional baker – such as high-quality decorative tins and collectable metal chests. At certain times children receive a little surprise.

The legendary reputation of the company is based on the unmistakable flavor and exceptional quality of its specialty baked goods. Product highlights include "Lebkuchen of the Year" and "Christkindlesmarkt Stollen". Christmas classics – from exquisite chocolate-coated Elisen gingerbread to lush cinnamon stars – are baked with passion today, from time-honored recipes, using high-quality ingredients.

The Schmidt name stands for a special corporate culture, which always operates fully committed to and with great respect for people and resources. The main shareholder is a non-profit association, which is why Lebkuchen Schmidt supports many social and cultural projects. Careful use of nature and its raw materials and fair cooperation with all trading partners are cornerstones of the company's philosophy.

Wurzelsepp

ADVERTISEMENT

It smells wonderful, steams and tastes fantastic!

Wurzelsepp is an institution in Nuremberg when it comes to good taste. At the Christmas Market, booth 98, the family-owned company under the leadership of Philipp Rank offers a fine selection of teas with unusual flavors such as Nuremberg Christmas Punch, many in vegan and organic quality. A classic is the "Hot Apple", made from untreated fruit from Franconian meadow orchards.

Those searching for an alternative to the sweet, mulled wine which contains alcohol can try the official Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt Punch, made without sugar using only the natural sweetness of fruit – when desired with a shot of rum, orange or hazelnut liquor.

You can find a large selection of teas and spices, unusual sauces, herbs and oils in our shop.

Hot Tip: Mulled Wine

Nuremberg's location at the crossing of the most important medieval trading routes made it renowned as "The City of Spices". Thanks to an imperial commission to "develop specialties" "spiced wine" – a wine mixed with various spices – was created and developed by patrician and merchant families. After the boom years of the 1960s, "Nuremberg Mulled Wine" became protected under EU law in the early 1990s. Today it is offered and marketed internationally by four large renowned producers.

The favorite among Christmas specialties is the blueberry mulled wine. It tastes particularly good because it is made of pure blueberry wine and the very best ingredients, including aniseed, cinnamon, cloves and other spices - the highlight of every visit to the Christkindlesmarkt during the Advent season.

Gerstacker Wines

ADVERTISEMENT

A special recommendation is the red and white winemaker's mulled wine with its especially harmonious blend of spices. Here, you can drink a STERNE®-GLÜHWEIN (organic and vegan) from Tempranillo wine. It has been created by the well-known chefs at the famous restaurant Essigbrätlein in Nuremberg, who have received two Michelin stars, especially for their work with flavors and aromas. Extracts from typical Nuremberg gingerbread spices, bourbon vanilla and fruit and extracts of oak wood and fruits make the mulled wine a one-of-a-kind taste experience. Or you might want to try a Christkindles® alcohol-free Children's Punch (made from an age-old secret recipe), the full-bodied blueberry mulled wine, the roasted apple punch or the lovely hot mead.

All of these delicious products come from the traditional GERSTACKER winery in Nuremberg, which is now led by the third generation of the family and closely tied to the name of Nuremberg. Many other interesting winter and summer products are available not only in Germany, but also throughout Europe, the US and Asia.

A Little Treat with Big Flavor

Nuremberg Rostbratwurst – A small but hearty treat

A true Nuremberg sausage is only seven to nine centimeters long and weighs just 20 to 25 grams. But these little sausages pack a lot of flavor.

The consistency and size of today's pork sausage was laid down back in the 14th century. There are many legends about why the sausages are so small. Today, size, weight and recipe are protected by EU law, guaranteeing the quality and tradition of this small symbol of the town.

You can enjoy Nuremberg bratwurst at the Christmas Market or in a Bratwurst Kitchen the traditional way: Grilled over a beechwood fire and served as 6, 8, 10 or 12 sausages on a pewter plate, traditionally enjoyed with a side dish of sauerkraut or potato salad, mustard or horseradish (Kren) and coarse rye bread.

Liebermann

Original Nuremberg bratwurst – as both “three in a bun” or “two Franconians” – can be enjoyed at many stands on and near the Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt. ## Nuremberg Words for Advent

ADVENTS WORT

90 Seconds for the Soul

Advent is a very special time: The air is filled with the scent of gingerbread and bratwurst, mulled wine and baked goods. Well-known songs and tunes can be heard everywhere. Christians prepare themselves for Christmas. And in all of the bustle there's time for reflection and quiet moments...

These are the precious moments at the end of the year that prepare the way for a journey into one's self and a time of solitude... Nuremberg's Words for Advent are meant to inspire you: 90 seconds which bring the message and peace of Advent.

From Dec 2 to Dec 23, 2023, at 5:30 pm on the stage of the Christkindlesmarkt, representatives from the churches of Nuremberg will help you prepare for the upcoming celebration of Christmas with inspiration and thoughts, tales and stories.

On Christmas Eve, Dec 24 at 12 noon, an Ecumenical Celebration with Nuremberg's Catholic and Lutheran city deans and the Nuremberg Christkind will take place.
