NUREMBERG CHRISTMAS TRADITIONS at the Christkindlesmarkt

Foto © Kristof Götting

On this tour you will experience traditional products and culinary delights.

1 Our tour starts near the Beautiful Fountain at Booth 127 from Lebkuchen-Schmidt. Here you'll find original Nuremberg gingerbread. Whether round or square, with chocolate, sugar or plain with almonds – a delicious gingerbread is a must at Christmas and, of course, in Nuremberg.

2 We move on to the Mulled Wine Stand Nr. 125 from Vollrath. There, a blueberry mulled wine will warm you wonderfully from the inside. This specialty is created exclusively from specially selected Italian wines and flavored with choice spices.

3 At Booth 103, nostalgic feelings of the holiday season are guaranteed: Gabriele Ulrich sells traditional Franconian Christmas decorations. If you want to decorate your Christmas tree with one-of-a-kind straw stars or angels made of feathers or are looking for something even more unusual, you are sure to find it here.

4 The history of gingerbread – with its unique aroma based on exotic spices – is tightly tied to the history of Nuremberg, because this Free Imperial City was once located on the hub of many European trade routes. At Stand 104, the Nuremberg Lebküchner Wolfgang Voitinek offers handmade gingerbread.

5 At the crèche, Susanne Schrödel stands in Booth 87 behind her prune men. Children and grandmas, cooks and waiters, pastors and devils – everyone loves to stop and look at these little figures with their walnut heads. They are all handmade and nine to 22 centimeters big – or small. Made of wire, dried prunes and figs, they are an excellent souvenir!

6 You'll find something else to hang on your Christmas tree with a visit to Thomas Schulz in Booth 73. He makes Springerle, sometimes called Eierzucker (Egg Sugar) or Reiterle (Little Riders). This baked good has existed for many centuries and is made in the traditional way with special modeling forms. You can also buy these forms from Thomas Schulz – a great handmade gift with Nuremberg flair and a long history.

7 The tour leads us to Stand 26 from Ralf Rehder. He sells the most important symbol of the Christkindlesmarkt, the "Rauschgold" angel. The name comes from the extremely thin beaten brass which once made the robe of the angel shine and created a whispering noise – "rauschen" in German – with every movement. Today, the angels no longer wear metal, but paper – yet they are still as magical as in the past.

8 Before finishing off your tour, why not stop by Thomas & Gerstacker in Booth 31. Those in the know order a Christkindlesmarkt mulled wine here, popular because of its special secret mix of spices and its fruity sweetness. A tip: The cup doesn't have to be turned back in for the deposit – you can take it home as a souvenir! All mulled wine sellers have the same.

9 Peter Löbel at Booth 11 sells the world-famous Nuremberg bratwurst. He creates this traditional symbol of the city in his own butcher shop, using a formula decreed by the City Council of Nuremberg more than 700 years ago... but the exact recipe remains a secret.

CREATIVE ARTS & CRAFTS at the Christkindlesmarkt

Typical regional specialties

The Sister Cities Market – 23 international partners

One-of-a-kind gift ideas from creative minds – this tour makes the hearts of those looking for something unique beat faster.

1 We begin the tour with Booth 111 from Rudi Delago. Fans of wood carving are happy here because this South Tyrolean artist learned his craft from an early age. They'll find crèche figures and wooden decorative items – all from his own production in Gröden.

2 Not far away is Booth 109 from Stefan Lüpkes where he amazes visitors: Through his delicate and precise craftsmanship, he turns a simple piece of wood, fungus or root into a magical castle. In the twinkling of an eye, a rough piece of timber becomes a fairy-tale palace or an entire kingdom. When you take out the individual pieces, the work of art turns into a miraculous 3D-puzzle.

3 Diagonally opposite is Peter Eberhardt in Booth 100. Here you'll find a diverse assortment of glass objects: From glass globes to animal figures and angels and on to the stars. All the objects, artistic or practical, are completely handmade.

4 The next stop leads us to Hans Steffin-Hierzer at Booth 91. In his atelier, he creates detailed pen-and-ink drawings, which he reproduces in limited-edition art prints, calendars and wonderful greeting cards decorated with stars and other embossing.

5 Typically Franconian and really creative are the prune men from Julian Scheller. At his Stand 89, located at the crèche, gathers a funny little community. Made from dried prunes, chimney sweeps, gnomes, chefs and firefighters stand row-on-row and fascinate visitors. Julian Scheller is the fifth generation of his family creating these little figures.

6 Nuremberg is known for its old half-timbered houses, including those in the nearby Weissgerbergasse. If you'd like to take one of these beautiful buildings home – in a miniature format of course – you'll find one at Edith Herrmann-Zöllner's Booth 48. She creates Franconian half-timbered houses based on historical originals.

7 Booth 18 will fascinate Mamas and Papas, Grandmas and Grandpas. Here, one finds playful children's fashions "Made in Nuremberg". The clever idea behind it: The colorful pants and dresses are fitted with soft cuffs, waist- and wristbands, so the clothing can "grow" with your baby or toddler and be used for many years. In 2016, Kerstin Brkasic-Bauer won the Entrepreneur of the Year Prize from the IHK Chamber of Commerce for this fantastic idea.

8 A stroll past stands with wooden letters, sweets and gingerbread brings the tour to Marco Weihmann at Booth 13. His floral arrangements exude a wonderful scent of Christmas, because he uses not only the classic array of pines and evergreens to create them, but also fruits and spices like cinnamon and oranges.

LOCAL AND REGIONAL PRODUCTS at the Christkindlesmarkt

Foto © Kristof Göthling

Typical regional specialties

On this tour, you'll experience regional craftwork and enjoy Franconian specialties.

1 The tour starts at Booth 17 of Walhalla Lamb from Regensburg. Here you can find all sorts of good things made from sheep: Yarns, wool socks, cuddly toys and soap made from sheep's milk. The soap is enhanced with colors, scents, herbs or oil and is calming for sensitive skin.

2 At the second stop you'll also find great wool products. At Daniela Enßner's Booth 21, there are caps, gloves, felt soles and much more. All products are made with the wool from her alpacas in the Aurach Valley and keep you cozy warm during a cold winter.

3 One lane on, PLAYMOBIL in Stand 44 makes children's eyes light up with joy. This Franconian export king – founded in 1974 in nearby Zirndorf – has conquered the world of toys with its little figures. Children in Germany and around the world use these playthings to dive into the world of knights, police, builders and astronauts.

4 Things turn even sweeter a few meters further in the "Zum Eierzucker" lane: Juliane Neuffer-Tietz presents everything about bees and their products in Booth 63. In addition to homemade honey from the mountains in northern Bavaria, she offers bee-cream, honey soap, lip balms, incense cones and met.

5 A visit to Stand 93 is a must for all teddy bear fans. Local Fürth-based Elisabeth Wimmer discovered her love of little bears just by chance. Since then, teddy bears have been arriving from the "Clover-Leaf City": In limited editions, some sewn, others knitted; all handmade. And if your darling should lose an eye or need repair, Elisabeth Wimmer has opened a teddy bear hospital too.

6 Handmade unique items from the region can be found in Stall 108 - whether jewellery, decoration or fashion - there is something for everyone here. The FrischesDesign stall offers handicrafts by artists and designers from the region on a rotation.

7 Manufaktur Dr. Röska comes from the Upper Palatinate. The company offers its plant-based face and body care products in Booth 141, next to the Beautiful Fountain. Its all-natural soap, body balms and bath and shower products are made without synthetic additives and enriched with honey, bee's wax and milk. The company's own scents are created from unadulterated essential oils.

8 Just a few steps away, at the corner of the New City Hall, one finds Tomas Braunwarth from Fürth at Booth 143. He presents extraordinary candle creations and spiced candles, which emit a wonderful aroma when lit.

9 To round off the tour, head to the niches of St. Sebald's Church, right across from the historical Old City Hall. There, you'll find the booths of Original Regional with specialties from Franconia and the Upper Palatinate. Herbal teas, mulled wine, fine brandies and jams made from fruit from local orchards, unique sausages made from lamb and beef, wool products, soap and bee's wax products and much more – are all on offer from local regional growers and producers.

FOR A GOOD CAUSE at the Christkindlesmarkt

Foto © Timo Reichtart

Typical regional specialties

On this tour, visit the booths who give the proceeds of their sales to charity.

1 Right at the beginning of the tour, at Booth 39, are very special presents which have one thing in common: They are all made with lots of love and dedication by unique people. The products come from workshops for the disabled in a collaboration between noris inklusion and Diakoneo. None of them are mechanically mass produced, each one has its own personality. The crafts also have ecological value and with your purchase, you help preserve these important jobs.

2 Straw, wood, paper or cardboard: If you're looking for a one-of-a-kind decoration for your tree or window, don't miss the "Sternstunden" stand (Booth 83, near the nativity scene). For the last 25 years to help children in need, hobby crafters large and small from the entire region have created Christmas stars in every possible variety to support this non-profit association. When you stop by, there's also a good chance you'll meet someone famous from sports or entertainment. They help sell the stars for the benefit of the project – and are also willing to sign an autograph.

3 Continue on to Booth 90, in which the Nuremberg hospital presents visitors delicious Christmas delicacies. From home-made Christmas cookies to Stollen to cherry cobbler in a jar, there are lots of good things to eat. The treats are also available in a Christmas gift package.

4 Football fans of all ages will enjoy the stand of the 1. FC Nuremberg (Booth 138). The Club family has created FCN items for a good cause. The proceeds from the sales go to the social initiative of the 1. FCN "Nuremberg Wins", which supports children and young adults in the region through sport, health activities, education and integration.

5 If you're looking for cool hand-made totes upcycled from truck tarpaulins or colorful hand-made jewelry, you'll find something at Booth M (in front of the New City Hall) from "Mudra – Youth- and Drug Help Nuremberg". As the first project of its kind in Bavaria, the organization has assisted in the work and social integration of former drug users for more than 30 years. The proceeds from the sales of the unique made-in-Nuremberg label are used exclusively for the qualification, employment and reintegration of program participants and help create a drug-free future for former addicts.

6 The Sister Cities Market behind the New City Hall is an insider tip. Some of the booths – including those from Braşov (Romania), Córdoba (Spain), Kavala (Greece), and Bar (Montenegro) – are operated by non-profit associations. Proceeds from the sales are donated to charitable projects in the sister cities. The Nablus Initiative supports children and young adults in the Palestinian territories. And a purchase at the stand of San Carlos (Nicaragua) will not only bring a little more money into one of the poorest places on earth but will also help to care for victims of sexual and intra-family violence.

On this tour, you'll find all the merchants who offer licensed products from the Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt. The products are a perfect memento of your visit to the market.

1 Our first booth on the tour is Stand 134. There, Tina Wendrich offers a pendant with a close-up of the logo of the Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt. The silver charm hung on a red cord is lovingly created by hand from sterling silver. It is a high-quality souvenir, which can be worn year-round.

2 The next licensed product can be found diagonally opposite at Booth 130. The Soap Manufactory of Susanne Schleicher from Fürth has created a special soap with a gingerbread scent and Christkindlesmarkt logo just for the market. There are also soap dishes with the official logo.

3 In "Sternlasweg" is Booth 101 from Arndt Tennie. His delicate paper stars are a perfect small Christmas decoration for your tree or home. They are also an official licensed product of the Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt. They are available in many different shapes and colors; each star is one-of-a-kind.

4 Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt punch from Wurzelsepp can be found at Booth 96 from Philipp Rank. It is a tea composition which tastes wonderful all year long and contains cinnamon and a fantastic mix of fruits. The tea is available in 100- or 250-gram packages in an aroma-sealing bag.

5 A stroll past several stands leads us to Booth 72. To keep you warm in wintertime, Andrea Ruppert-Fröhling offers a Christkindlesmarkt scarf. Wonderfully warm and soft, it is made from Merino wool and is a great Christmas gift for all Christkindlesmarkt fans.

6 Patrick Vogel's Stall 69 also has a special offer. Here we find beautiful window decorations made from Plauen lace, including one with the official Christkindlesmarkt logo.

7 One can take home the Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt with the Church of Our Lady, Beautiful Fountain and Christkind as a decoration. Sieglinde Janoschke in Booth 38 offers a Christkindlesmarkt candle holder made from real wood veneer in a light-colored beech, fine mahogany or dark cherry. With a small candle, you'll light up the miniature scene and the eyes of children and adults.

8 New this year are the licensed products from Friedrich Barthelmes. At his Booth, number 34, you can find star-shaped wooden pendants and Christmas pendants. These can be used to decorate gifts or to adorn your Christmas tree.

9 Wolfgang and Philipp Marx also have very special licensed products. In addition to gingerbread balls and chocolate products from their own workshop, there are chocolate gold coins with the logo of the Christkindlesmarkt at Booth 51. If you feel hungry for something sweet while exploring the market, you're sure to find something special in the assortment from Marx Chocolates.

10 One of the highlights of Advent are homemade baked goods. Everyone can make stars and hearts, but the Christkindlesmarkt cutter from Petra Strauß at Booth 52 really stands out. The Sister Cities Market – 23 international partners

This self-guided tour takes you to the stalls, which have a variety of vegan delicacies and gifts for you.

1 Our self-guided tour starts at Stall 47 of Jan Vespermann, who for the second time this year is offering vegan flatbreads and deep-fried vegetables.

2 A few steps further, at the tea concept stand of Wurzelesepp, Stall 36, tea lovers will find a variety of organic, vegan teas with high-quality ingredients and exceptional flavours.

3 Vegans will be in for a treat at the Stahlmann family's Stall 53. Here you can get vegan hot sausages with onions on request.

4 At Andjelka Jukic in Booth 79, those with a sweet tooth will find Belgian pralines made with love and craftsmanship—and, as of this year, vegan options too.

5 Fancy something warm? Then head for Dominik Jukic at Stand 80, who offers hot drinks without animal ingredients, such as delicious hot chocolate with oat milk.

6 If you're hungry now, you can treat yourself next door at Stall 81 with corn on the cob, a vegan mushroom pan with onions or vegan mashed potatoes.

7 Or would you prefer Nuremberg roast sausages, for which you can smell in every corner of the Christkindlesmarkt? Karin and Norbert Maisel's Booth 132 offers the Nuremberg specialty in a vegan version.

8 In the alleyway "Zur Puppenküch" stands Stall 130 belonging to the Schleicherei soap factory. They also sell vegan products - but not for eating in this case. Instead, soaps without animal ingredients from their own production are offered.

9 Like the bratwurst, Nuremberg Lebkuchen are just as much a part of a visit to the Christkindlesmarkt. The extensive range from Lebkuchen-Schmidt (Stall 127) also includes vegan gingerbread, which you should definitely try.

10 At the end of the tour there is once again a warm refreshment. Karin Hoffmann at Booth 145 will be serving delicious vegan potato fritters - known here in Franconia as "Baggers" - made from freshly grated potatoes.

Tip: At the Nuremberg Christmas market, vegans don't have to miss out on the Christmas classics! Almost every gingerbread and mulled wine stall offers a lovingly made, vegan alternative. So even those who follow a purely plant-based diet can enjoy fresh gingerbread and hot mulled wine at the Christkindlesmarkt.
