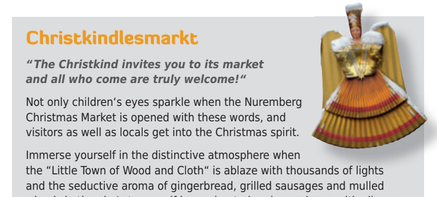
Lifestyle

Whether on the main market square under the red and white striped umbrellas of the vegetable stalls, or behind the glass facades of elegant shopping arcades: The city offers a unique shopping atmosphere with over 500 shops against a historic backdrop. You can shop during the week until 8 pm.

Quaint grilled sausage restaurants and cozy beer gardens invite you to enjoy Franconian specialties; starred restaurants offer those with gourmet tastes refreshing culinary experiences.



Christkindlesmarkt

"The Christkind invites you to its market and all who come are truly welcome!"

Not only children's eyes sparkle when the Nuremberg Christmas Market is opened with these words, and visitors as well as locals get into the Christmas spirit.

Immerse yourself in the distinctive atmosphere when the "Little Town of Wood and Cloth" is ablaze with thousands of lights and the seductive aroma of gingerbread, grilled sausages and mulled wine is in the air. Let yourself be enchanted and experience with all your senses the special feeling of Germany's Christmas City Number 1.

Friday before the 1st Advent – Dezember 24th

You weren't really in Nuremberg, if you missed ...

... watching the "MÄNNLEINLAUFEN", the mechanical clock on the facade of the Church of Our Lady (Frauenkirche) on the main market square at noon

... looking down on the roofs of the city from the IMPERIAL CASTLE

... eating some of the famous Nuremberg GRILLED SAUSAGES

And don't forget to turn the golden ring on the "BEAUTIFUL FOUNTAIN" and make a wish while doing it!
