

Klassik Open Air

July 26 and August 8, 2026

One of the biggest classical music concerts at Picnic in the Park?
Sounds like Nuremberg!

The Klassik Open Air in Nuremberg is one of the largest open-air classical music concerts in Europe. Every year, the Nuremberg State Philharmonic Orchestra and the Nuremberg Symphony Orchestra perform in Luitpoldhain, transforming it into an open-air concert hall in a relaxed picnic atmosphere. The family concert, which has been running since 2013, is also very popular. Here, there are hands-on musical activities where children can discover classical music in a playful way.

Story

- the first Klassik Open Air took place in 2000 on the occasion of the 950th anniversary of the city of Nuremberg
- the Klassik Open Air was inspired by similar formats in New York's Central Park and the "Proms in the Park" in London's Hyde Park
- the series of events consists of a concert evening with the Nuremberg State Philharmonic Orchestra and one with the Nuremberg Symphony Orchestra
- the venue was formerly used by the National Socialists as the Luitpoldarena

Details

organisers | programm | locations | photos & videos |
merch | audios | press contact

Music

- the orchestras present a diverse and varied program of classical music together with international guest soloists

Good to know

- the audience traditionally uses the concerts to picnic while listening to live classical music
- The Klassik Open Air is also known as the "Woodstock of classical music" and attracts around 160,000 people every year
- Every two years, the "Stars in Luitpoldhain" concert also takes place on the Klassik Open Air stage
- every year one of the Klassik Open Airs is broadcasted on television
- the "bird pin" is a traditional thank-you gift in return for a donation at the Klassik Open Air and is now a coveted collector's item

MUSIK
FESTIVALS
NÜRNBERG

KLINGT
NACH!