

Nürnberg Pop

October 8 to 10, 2026

100 concerts, 21 venues,
3 evenings?

Sounds like Nuremberg!

The Nürnberg Pop Festival is southern Germany's largest club and showcase festival and attracts music fans to Nuremberg every year.

In addition to performances by national and international artists from indie, rap, pop, electro and punk, the festival offers the Pop Conference as a platform for cultural professionals, culture enthusiasts and politicians to exchange ideas. Since 2021, the GUNDA pop culture prize has also been awarded to young talents and committed personalities.

Story

- Date: every year in early October
- 2011: first Nürnberg Pop festival
- extraordinary venues in Nuremberg's city center, such as churches, museums, bars, stores, cultural centers, etc.
- in addition to the concerts, the Pop Conference and the presentation of the GUNDA pop culture award will take place

Details

organisers | programm | tickets | locations | photos & videos | merch | audios | press contact

Music

- international and national acts from the music genres indie, rap, pop, electro and punk - from newcomers to established artists

Good to know

- In the afternoons, free concerts are held in record stores, pubs or public squares
- Awards:
HELGA! Festival Award at the Reeperbahnfestival for "Finest Booking" and Bavarian Pop Culture Award in the category "festivals"
- free participation in the Pop Conference and numerous network meetings
- aftershow parties following the concerts

MUSIK
FESTIVALS
NÜRNBERG

KLINGT
NACH!